

QEMSP1	Manual Issue: 3
Page 8 of 20	Page Revision:3
Effective Date: 14.04.21

ABERDEEN BLAST CLEANING, QUALITY, ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY
STATEMENT QEMSP1. Rev 2015: 00

Aberdeen Blast Cleaning are committed to providing a quality coating, preservation, refurbishment service to their customers, without having unnecessary impacts on the local and global environment.

- Aberdeen Blast Cleaning will, as a minimum, meet compliance obligations to which the organisation subscribes which relate to its's environmental aspects and other relevant stakeholders.
- Aberdeen Blast Cleaning will strive to demonstrate a continual improvement in the Company's Quality and Environmental Performance and to prevent pollution, harm and degradation to the environment and meet or exceed customer requirements.
- Aberdeen Blast Cleaning will periodically review their processes, operations and substances used, adopting Best Available Techniques (BAT), to ensure satisfactory, quality and environmental performance.
- Aberdeen Blast Cleaning will adopt quality controlled processes, energy conservation and waste minimisation techniques to ensure best utilisation of resources, throughout their operations.
- Aberdeen Blast Cleaning will periodically audit and review its quality and environmental performance to ensure the continuing effectiveness and relevance to their objectives and targets
- Aberdeen Blast Cleaning will promote the process of oilfield equipment preservation and refurbishment to reduce their environmental impact and those of their customer base.
- Aberdeen Blast Cleaning will monitor their customer satisfaction process to ensure position is consistently determined with respect to intended outcomes relating to defined specifications, delivery time and technical support.
- Aberdeen Blast Cleaning will display this Policy Statement within their facilities and it will be issued to all its employees and others performing tasks for the company. The Policy will be made available to all relevant interested parties.

This Policy Statement covers all coating, and associated significant support activities connected with facilities at Hillview Road, East Tullos, Aberdeen these will include activities performed by sub contractors on and off site, the statement is relevant to the scope of the QEMS.

Policy Signed By :

Date : 14.04.21

Managing Director